

Nancy Vogel

Nancy describes herself as “simply a mom who decided to go for a bike ride”. This bike ride took Nancy and her family on an unbelievable adventure. A long-time veteran of classroom teaching, Nancy took 12 months out with her husband John and 8 year old twins to cycle 9,300 miles around North America. Nancy is an inspirational speaker who breaks down the conventional boundaries associated with motherhood and learning.

About Nancy:

A modern-day nomad with a twist who travels the world in search of adventure, and good times with her family. Nancy left her teaching position a few years ago to set up familyonbikes.org. Nancy has developed “roadschoolers” an unorthodox but none the less dynamic teaching method.

Key Note Topics:

- Be Ordinary, Do the Extraordinary
- Roadschooling; Taking advantage of the world.

Testimonials:

“...Nancy you have taught me to cherish every minute with my kids, to stop waiting and to do what I must today...”
